Important Advisory: Code of conduct for ERP, Website, and IT related domains

To all students, faculty, and staff members

We are committed to maintaining a secure, respectful and productive online environment. To help create and sustain a safe digital space, please follow these guidelines:

Do's:

- Respect others privacy and security: Do not access, share, or misuse confidential information, including personal data or login credentials.
- Use authorized access only: Access only systems and data necessary for your role or academic requirements.
- Maintain data integrity: Ensure the accuracy, authenticity, and security of all institutional data.
- Report incidents: Immediately report any security breaches, suspicious activities or technical issues to the IT department directly.
- Follow institutional policies: Adhere to all policies, guidelines, and procedures regarding IT resources and services.

Don'ts:

- Do not access or tamper with systems or data without proper authorization.
- Do not share or use another person's login credentials.
- Do not engage in cyberbullying, harassment, or spread malicious content.
- Do not download or share copyrighted materials without permission.

Consequences of Violating the Code of Conduct:

- You may face disciplinary action, including account suspension or termination of access to IT resources.
- In some cases, legal action may be taken, if applicable, as per institutional policies and law.

Let's work together to keep our online environment secure, respectful, and productive. For any questions or concerns, please contact the IT department.
