

Manisha Bhavsar –Profile

Manisha Bhavsar is a Corporate Trainer and an Education Consultant. She is the owner of Think English; a company engaged in training and development. She is a certified Business English and IELTS trainer from British Council, a certified English and Soft skill trainer from British connections and also a teacher trainer. She has been into corporate training for around 9 years with training expertise in General English, Business English, Voice and Accent training, Presentation skills, communication skills, soft skills and campus to corporate for college students. She is also an Education consultant for Macmillan Education India.

Manisha has done her BA, B.Ed (English and Social studies) and MA in English. She has 21 years of teaching experience across the SSC, CBSE and IB boards where she has taught English, Science, Economics and Social studies from KG to class 12. She has also taught French and Business Communication to students at under graduate colleges.

She possesses expertise in curriculum design, pedagogical know how, assessments, reporting and implementation of the content in structured and communicative classrooms. She possesses the ability to integrate theoretical concepts, practical ideas and applying them to learning and development. Manisha views teaching and learning as a dynamic and an interactive process.